METU FLE Department: TWO POSITIONS OF ASSISTANT PROFESSOR IN ELT

The Department of Foreign Language Education at Middle East Technical University (METU, Ankara, Turkey) is seeking to appoint two full-time Assistant Professors specializing in English Language Teaching. Successful candidates should hold a PhD in English Language Teaching or a related field (a relevant area of Applied Linguistics, TESOL, or TEFL/TESL), should have spent a minimum of one year at an international university of high standing (either as part of the PhD studies or in a full-time post-doctoral position) and should have a minimum of one research article published in (or accepted for publication by) an AHCI or SSCI indexed journal.

The positions involve teaching undergraduate courses focusing on ELT and English language skills (for the list of courses, please check http://fle.metu.edu.tr/undergraduate-program), as well as supervising MA and PhD theses in the field of ELT. The teaching load is 3 courses per semester. A native or near-native command of English is required.

Electronic applications should include:
   i.   Cover letter,
   ii.  CV, including names, affiliations, and contact information of three references,
   iii. Statement of research and teaching interests.

For inquiries and applications, please contact Assoc. Prof. Dr. Bilal Kirkici, Chair, Department of Foreign Language Education bkirkici@metu.edu.tr. The positions are open until filled.
